

FIRST STEPS SHOTGUN

WHEN: Saturday, Sept 10, 2022; 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

WHERE: Shongum Sportsmen's Association Indoor Range and Classroom 363 Janes Chapel Road, Oxford, NJ 07863

COURSE GOAL: To teach the basic knowledge and skills, and to explain the proper attitude necessary for the safe handling, shooting, and storage of shotguns.

DESCRIPTION: The goal of the NRA FIRST Steps Shotgun Program is to teach the basic knowledge, skills and attitude necessary for the safe and proper use of a shotgun.

This is a six-hour course where students will learn the rules of safe gun handling, terminology, ammunition, shooting fundamentals, firearm jam clearance, cleaning, and storage. Shooting on the trap range is also part of this course.

FEE: $125 for Shongum Members, their Immediate Family, Shongum Probationary Members, and persons on the Shongum Member Waiting List. $175 Non-Members.

WHAT'S INCLUDED? Training, Targets, ammunition, and the use of loaner shotguns are provided at no additional charge, coffee, pastries, and refreshments.

PREREQUISITES: There are no prerequisites for this course.

FIREARMS: Shongum will provide 12 Gauge ammo for training.

Please bring your shotgun, if you have one, along with appropriate ammo (if not 12 Gauge), safety glasses, and hearing protection.

NOTE: When you arrive for training, leave your firearm and ammo locked in the trunk of your car. When needed, you will be directed to retrieve it.
